The Voices Of Our Pastors

Hello, my dear Holy Trinity Church family,
As we have done in previous months, I would like to share with you an article written by Father Tim Horan on this day in 2015. I hope you enjoy reading it!

Remember, The parish that we dream is the parish that I help to build!
God bless you, and may the Blessed Virgin Mary be with you always!

The Examen… Call to Mind

By Fr. Timothy Horan.

October 11, 2015

I'd like to suggest to you a little practice that you can do every day to bring a clarity and understanding of the deeper spiritual realities of your life.

It's called the Examen. It was invented some 400 years ago by St. Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Jesuit order of priests and brothers. He developed it to help the Jesuit novices grow in their conscious union with God during the day.

It's really quite simple (we'll get to how you do it in a minute). It requires only the ability to remember the events of your day, but to do it in partnership with God. Picture God sitting beside you as you recall various encounters with people, any strong thoughts or feelings that happened to you during the day.

Why do this? Isn't it just daydreaming? Wasting time? No!! Something happens. Instead of experiencing your day as one random meeting or conversation after another - - - signifying nothing. The Examen wraps a blanket of "God's Purpose" around all these moments. It unifies our day whereby we can see how we have co-operated with God's grace or how we may have ignored or turned away from God's plan.

Here in brief form are the steps to the Examen. Find a quiet place, a comfortable chair, take a deep breath to relax and begin. (Remember the Holy Spirit will come with little "promptings" opening your eyes to see what God wants you to see.)

1. Call to mind that you are in the presence of God. (@30 seconds)
God made you. He has brought you to this moment. The air you breathe – God made that. Your lungs that breathe that air - - God made those too. God loves you and wants you to see what he sees about your life.

2. Review your day from rising to the present moment. (Steps 2, 3, 4 can be done in 5 or 6 minutes.)

Bereavement Support Meeting

Our monthly Support Group will be gathering on Tuesday, October 13th at 1:30 PM in the Wing Room.

No one should grieve alone. Bereavement groups provide an environment where one can continue telling the stories and feelings beyond the social expectations of close family members and friends. Come and join us either to share or to listen. Any questions please contact, Mary Ann Spinelli at mpenlon1@rochester.rr.com

Consider conversations you've had with people (people close to you and those who just happened by). Consider thoughts you've had (good or bad) that come to mind as you are sitting. (Why do you think you remembered that thought?)

3. Pay attention to feelings

Strong reactions to conversations (positive or negative) tell us something is going on here. Why the emotion? What is it telling you? Don't force the feelings; they'll come back to you as it pleases the Spirit. Generally, there is a little realization of, "hey, that really… touched me, bothered me, delighted me, etc.…"

4. Choose one feature of the day (one conversation, one feeling).

Make that your prayer/conversation with the Lord. For example: my examen a few days ago reminded me of some intense negative feelings I'd had while talking to someone at dinner. She was expressing her opinion about something to which I disagreed. My feelings were ones set on defeating her opinion and replacing mine as the better one. I wanted to win.

The Spirit asked me to look at my reactions. Tim, why are you so combative? Why do have to win the discussion all the time? My prayer then became, "Well Lord, I've done it again! I can't just listen and try to understand another person. I have to be the one who's right all the time. Help me learn to listen. Help me to accept people where they are. Help me to wait for You to show me what is the "helpful" word."

5. Look toward tomorrow. (1 minute).

Tell God what is next in your life. What feelings come with those expectations (joy, worry, hopeful, thankful, anxious). Ask God for the grace to be "Open to the moment". Ask for God's help as best you can put it into words.

Tell the Lord your thanks and love for Him.

The Examen will help you find the Hand of God present in your life. Don't be compulsive, but try to do this once a day (best times are around noon or in the evening.)

Good remembering!!
Fr. Tim

K of C Trinity Council 4618 has kicked off the 15th Annual "Coats for Kids" Fund Drive amongst their membership. This annual fund drive to support "Coats for Kids" runs September, October and the first 2 weeks of November.

Since 2012, the Webster Knights of Columbus have run this fund drive each Fall and have been able to purchase a total of 4656 NEW Winter Coats over 14 years. These coats are distributed through many charitable organizations, schools, & churches, (32 in 2025) to children of need throughout Monroe & Wayne Counties, just in time for cold weather. With the many donations received, the Knights have been able to support "Sneakers for Children" in the Spring and gave away 516 New pairs of Sneakers over the past 3 years to some of the same organizations and charities that received coats.

Each coat is purchased new, at a cost of $25.00 and Sneakers at a cost of $21.00. If you would like to help us, Trinity Council is asking for your most generous donation, by making a check payable to Knights of Columbus 4618 and sending it to:

"Coats for Kids"

Thank You & May God Bless You for your support. "Coats for Kids" committee.

Next Sunday is World Mission Sunday, a day when we, together with all the Catholics around the globe, unite in prayer and generosity for the Church's missionary work. This year's theme, One in Christ, United in Mission, chosen by Pope Leo XIV, invites us to rediscover the profound unity we share in Christ through baptism and how our baptismal missionary identity overflows into the mission of the Church to bring all creatures into communion with God and us. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection for the Society of the Propagation of the Faith.

ALL THINGS NEW

Embracing Our Mission in Christ

Hopefully, you have received the Catholic Ministries Appeal mailing and have had a chance to review the materials. The theme for this year's campaign is ALL THINGS NEW Embracing Our Mission in Christ. The CMA is a vehicle to help us share the hope of the Gospel message throughout the Diocese of Rochester. It supports each of us in our faith life and enables us to live out our purpose as Catholics. Through gifts to the CMA, we support the larger Church so that it may meet real needs throughout the Diocese. Your gift to the CMA enables the Church to be responsive and caring in fulfilling its mission. Please be as generous as your means allow in your response. Please pray for the success of our efforts. Thank you.

Payments at the Parish Office

Please note that going forward, the parish office is no longer prepared to make change for any payments. Please bring exact change or a check when making any payments.

Do you have an IRA and are subject to a Required Minimum Distribution rule? Here's a way to reduce your Income Tax for 2026

If you have an individual Retirement Account (IRA) and you may reach the required age during 2026, you could be subject to the Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) rules under federal tax law. If so, you might be able to reduce your taxable income, and the amount of tax you owe, by giving gifts to charities directly from your IRA. Qualified charities would include our parish and the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Talk with your tax advisor to see if this might benefit you.

Stewardship by the Book

In today's second reading, St. Paul thanks the Philippians for being willing to share in his hardships and promises that God, in turn, will fully supply all their needs. Our God truly cannot be outdone in generosity!
